EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Amendment

1. This action is responsive to applicant's amendment and remarks received on 10/1/2009. Claims 1 and 8 are currently pending.

2. Claims 1 and 8 (to be re-numbered as 1 and 2) are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, the claim recites an image file creating apparatus for creating a 3-dimensional image file from a plurality of images corresponding to a plurality of viewpoints onto a recording medium by using a 2-dimensional image file format, and for enabling the image file to be judged by an image file reproducing apparatus as to whether the image file is a 3-dimensional image file and to be reproduced in the image file reproducing apparatus, comprising: "wherein the deciding unit decides the filename and the directory in such a manner that if a 2-dimensional image file and a 3-dimensional image file are created based, on the same plurality of viewpoint images, then the 2-dimensional image file and 3-dimensional image file have the same filename and different extensions, and the 2-dimensional image file and 3-dimensional image file created in the file creating means are stored in a common directory together, ,or one of the 2-dimensional image file and 3-dimensional image file created in the file creating means is stored in one directory and the other image file is stored in another directory that is under said one directory and if the 3-dimensional image file is created and stored in a 3-dimensional image directory, then the 2-dimensional image file is created from one viewpoint image selected from the plurality of viewpoint images for creating the 3-dimensional image file, and is stored in a 2 dimensional image directory.”

While the combination of Swift et al. (U.S. Pub. No. 2002/0122585 A1) and Taylor et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,084,978) and Osaka et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,023,277), previously used to reject the claims, discloses the other claimed limitations, the combination fails to provide for the prior quoted limitations. The Examiner has not found any other prior art to anticipate or render obvious the quoted claim limitations when read in light of the other claimed limitation. Accordingly, claim 1 is found to be allowable.

Claims 8 depends upon claim 1 and is thus similarly found to be allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
